Purpose

Camida is committed to preventing and combating modern slavery and human trafficking in all its forms. This policy outlines our commitment to identifying, addressing, and preventing any involvement in such practices within our operations and supply chains.

Scope

This policy is applicable to all Camida employees and extends to any business partner within our supply chain.

Responsibility

The overall responsibility for compliance with this policy lies with the Company Board. The Board has delegated the implementation and effective operation of controls to ensure compliance with the Policy to the Camida Operations Management Team.

Policy Statement:

1. Compliance with Laws: Camida will comply with all relevant laws and regulations related to modern slavery and human trafficking as detailed in the “References” section.
2. Risk Assessment: We will conduct bi-annual risk assessments to identify and evaluate the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking within our business operations and supply chains.
3. Supply Chain Due Diligence: Camida will implement due diligence procedures to assess and mitigate the risk of modern slavery in our supply chains. This includes assessing the practices of our suppliers and taking appropriate actions to address identified risks.
4. Supplier Engagement: We will work collaboratively with our suppliers to promote ethical business practices. The minimum requirements expected from our suppliers is outlined within the Camida Code of Conduct. This will be implemented in line with QP 7.4 Vendor Assessment.
5. Employee Awareness and Training: Camida will provide training to employees to raise awareness about modern slavery and human trafficking, equipping them to identify and report any concerns as per the Whistleblower Policy. This training is conducted during the induction process. Retraining may take place at Camida’s discretion.
6. Reporting Mechanisms: We will establish clear and accessible reporting mechanisms for employees and other stakeholders to report concerns related to modern slavery and human trafficking. This is described in the company Whistleblower Policy.
7. Investigation and Remediation: If concerns or allegations arise, Camida will promptly investigate and take appropriate remedial actions.
8. Continuous Improvement: We are committed to continuous improvement of our policies and procedures to combat modern slavery and human trafficking. We will regularly review and update our approach to align with best practices. We will work with our suppliers to encourage and support improvements to their labour and human rights procedures.

9. Transparency and Communication: Camida will communicate our efforts to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking both internally and externally, fostering transparency and accountability. Management will report any findings to the Board bi-annually. This policy is available for review on our company website.
10. Board and Management Oversight: The board of directors and executive leadership will provide oversight to ensure the effective implementation of this policy and the company's commitment to eradicating modern slavery and human trafficking.

Communication:

This policy will be communicated to all employees, suppliers, and stakeholders associated with Camida. It will be reviewed annually or as needed to ensure its continued effectiveness. The current effective policy will be available for review on the Camida website.

Breaches of the Policy

Any employee found in breach of this policy will face disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. Camida may terminate our relationship with individuals and organisations if, following a thorough investigation, it is found that a breach has occurred with this policy.
